

Collas Crill congratulates debut fund launch

April 2025

Collas Crill congratulates consultant, and former partner, Paul Wilkes and his team at Osney Capital on the successful launch of their debut fund.

Paul was a partner in the Guernsey office of Collas Crill until 2021. He remains with the firm in a client-facing consultant role.

Focused on early-stage investing in UK cyber security start-ups, Osney Capital's Fund I has the backing of a cornerstone commitment from the British Business Bank.

Wayne Atkinson, partner at Collas Crill, said: 'We are over the moon for Paul and the Osney team, given the successful launch of Fund I. Launching a debut fund is a major achievement. For us, retaining Paul in a consultancy capacity throughout this process has been a huge plus. His real-world experience in the realms of fund raising and deal structuring brings a unique and valuable perspective for clients of Collas Crill with similar aspirations.'
