

Collas Crill shortlisted in 2025 Chambers High Net Worth Awards

APRIL 2025

Collas Crill has been shortlisted in the 'offshore law firm of the year' category in the 2025 Chambers and Partners High Net Worth Awards.

The awards celebrate legal excellence, recognising firms' achievements over the past 12 months and highlighting examples of outstanding work and impressive growth strategies.

This shortlisting builds on Collas Crill's win at September's STEP Private Client Awards where it was named 'private client legal team of the year (midsize)'.

Its private client and trusts team offers wealth structuring, advisory and disputes expertise to trustees and high-net-worth individuals, and a range of services to clients within its local jurisdictions of Cayman, Guernsey and Jersey.

Partner, Christian Hay, said: 'Being shortlisted by Chambers follows a period of sustained growth and success for our private client and trusts team. As the global legal and regulatory landscape becomes ever more complex, managing wealth across generations, succession planning and transferring control of assets has never been more challenging. We understand that it's not a case of 'one size fits all' when it comes to client service, and through our combined expertise, experience and perspectives we ensure our clients' best interests are protected and specific needs met. To see this recognised by Chambers is testament to the hard work of the team delivering this service to our clients across all our locations.'
