

Collas Crill Trust expands team with appointment of Director

SEPTEMBER 2024

Collas Crill Trust (CCT) has appointed Greta Pender as Director.

She joins the company with more than 24 years' experience in the Guernsey fiduciary services industry.

With a focus on working with ultra-high net worth individuals on their inter-generational wealth planning and asset protection needs, at CCT she is also responsible for planning and implementing local and international business development strategies for new and existing clients.

Greta joins CCT from Sequent Group where she was a client services director, working there for five years. Prior to that she spent more than five years at Saffery Trust, having previously worked at Northern Trust and Investec Trust among others.

Greta was appointed as Chair of the STEP Guernsey Branch in 2023, having been on the Committee for six years, and is a member of the STEP Professional Development Committee.

She is also a presiding judge of the STEP Private Client Awards 2024, and joins STEP Council for a three-year term from January 2025.

Greta is an Associate of the Chartered Governance Institute and a member of the Institute of Directors. She was named as an eprivateclient Top 35 Under 35 in 2016 and 2017.

On joining CCT Greta said: 'I am thrilled to join CCT and excited to bring my experience and enthusiasm to the role. I look forward to working with the team to continue driving the growth of the business, as well as delivering excellent service to our clients.'
