Siobhan Crick joins Collas Crill Trust in Jersey

SEPTEMBER 2024

Collas Crill Trust has appointed Siobhan Crick as Director of Client Services in Jersey.

Siobhan will work closely with Katie Bonfrer, Group Managing Director of Collas Crill Trust and Corporate Services, to drive business growth and ensure clients receive consistently exceptional service.

Siobhan has more than 20 years' experience working with both private clients and large corporates, and has specific expertise in the Middle East, having spent much of her career travelling to the region. Prior to Collas Crill Trust, she worked for a Middle Eastern investment house, where she led the offshore structuring capabilities of the group, as well as supporting investors with their personal wealth structuring requirements.

Siobhan said: 'Joining Collas Crill marks the start of an exciting new chapter and a return to my roots; to fully focus on private client work. The opportunity to be part of creating something from the ground up in Jersey is obviously thrilling and it has been so refreshing meeting with Katie, finding that our views' on client offering, culture, and values are so aligned. I cannot wait to get stuck in.'

Katie Bonfrer, Group Managing Director of Collas Crill Trust and Corporate Services, said: 'Siobhan is a seasoned trust professional with abundant industry experience and an enviable track record in client service. She joins our Jersey team from its inception and will be a huge asset as we develop our portfolio.'
