

Growth for Collas Crill Trust and Corporate Services team in Jersey

APRIL 2025

Collas Crill Trust and Corporate Services (CCTCS) has further strengthened its growing team with the appointment of three new team members in Jersey.

Chelsea Ford has joined as Senior Relationship Manager, bringing with her significant experience in working with Middle Eastern families. Chelsea is STEP-qualified and throughout her career she has administered various family office structures, holding a combination of traditional investments as well as luxury asset classes.

Chelsea has received industry recognition, most recently being named on Citywealth's Top 25 Trustees under 40.

Jacob Taylor joins as a Trainee Trust Administrator, supporting the Jersey team with the day to day administration of the client portfolio. He is currently studying at the University College of Jersey (UCJ) where he is undertaking the BA (Hons) Business and Management degree.

In addition Margaret Namayanja has joined the team as an Executive Assistant to support Group Managing Director of CCTCS, Katie Bonfrer.

The Collas Crill group launched its trust company in Jersey in September last year.

The now seven-strong Jersey team has grown significantly to build on the Collas Crill group's established reputation and expertise in providing trust and corporate services to ultra high-net-worth private clients.

Katie Bonfrer said: 'Chelsea, Jacob and Margaret join CCTCS at an exciting time. We are a growing team, not only in Jersey but across all our businesses in Guernsey, Jersey and Cayman. At the heart of everything we do is delivering the highest level of service to our valued clients. Having team members aligned with our missions and values, like Chelsea, Jacob and Margaret, is essential to enabling us to achieve this.'
