

Collas Crill Trust appoints new Director of Client Services in Guernsey

MAY 2025

Collas Crill Trust and Corporate Services (CCTCS) has further strengthened its growing team in Guernsey with the appointment of Alex Le Prevost as Director of Client Services.

Alex has more than 19 years' experience in the private wealth sector, having previously worked in senior management positions at Suntera Global (previously Nedgroup Trust) and Belasko Administration Limited.

Alex brings with him a wealth of experience in structuring for ultra-high-net-worth private clients and has a strong track record of building and maintaining long-standing client relationships. Alex has spent most of his career working with South African and UK-based clients and advisors, travelling extensively across South Africa to meet them.

Alex said: 'I am delighted to have joined CCTCS. I look forward to an exciting new chapter and helping the team build on the solid foundations already in place here at CCTCS.'

Katie Bonfrer, Group Managing Director of CCTCS, said: 'With a deep understanding of the complex needs of ultra-high-net-worth individuals, Alex's arrival further strengthens our commitment to building strong relationships and providing tailored, high quality service to our clients which is at the very heart of the culture at CCTCS. I look forward to working with him again as we further grow and develop our business.'
