Collas Crill Trust recognised in Chambers HNW Guide 2026

JULY 2026

In its first year of submitting, Collas Crill Trust has been ranked in band 1 in the trust companies category of the Chambers HNW Guide 2026 for Guernsey and Jersey.

Katie Bonfrer, Siobhan Crick and Greta Pender have all been individually ranked in band 1 in the trust companies category.

Katie, Group Managing Director of Collas Crill Trust and Corporate Services, said: 'I am incredibly proud of these accolades as, not only is it rightful recognition of the Guernsey and Jersey teams' hard work and dedication, it's a tangible demonstration of our place in the private client and trust space. It builds on our inclusion in eprivateclient's Top Trust Companies at the end of last year.

'We received feedback that a service-led, independent trustee model was what ultra-high-net-worth clients were looking for in a trust company.

'So over the last two years we set ourselves ambitious targets to deliver an exceptional level of service that sets up apart from our competitors. We have evolved our offering, improved our internal processes and collaboration to enhance efficiency, and grown significantly by recruiting specialist trust experts to new roles - all to ensure we achieve these goals.

'I have said it before but, reading some of the client testimonials, I really feel like we have tapped into something that was missing in the marketplace.

‘To be recognised by Chambers in band 1 in our first submission to the HNW Guide, as I said, I am incredibly proud and I would like to thank the team for their continued effort, commitment, team spirit and the service they provide our clients.’
