

Collas Crill appoints David Moore as Consultant

July 2015

Collas Crill has strengthened its Guernsey corporate and commercial team with the appointment of experienced Consultant David Moore.

David has more than 30 years' experience in corporate law, having practised for more than 20 years in Guernsey and ten years in London prior to that. He specialises in corporate finance, insurance, offshore funds, trusts and regulatory issues and is highly regarded as one of Guernsey's leading corporate lawyers.

Collas Crill Group Partner and Head of Corporate and Commercial, Paul Wilkes, said: "David is a strong addition to our expanding corporate and commercial team. His knowledge and experience in corporate law is second-to-none in Guernsey and I am confident that he will be a driving force behind our continued growth and success."

David qualified as an English Solicitor in 1986 and as a Guernsey advocate in 1995.
