

Collas Crill head included in 50 Most Influential

November 2016

Collas Crill's Group Managing Partner, Jason Romer, has been recognised by eprivateclient as one of their 50 Most Influential 2017.

A partner since 2007, and Group Managing Partner since the formation of Collas Crill, Jason is responsible for determining, together with the strategy board and broader partnership, the firm's overall strategic direction across its jurisdictions.

Jason has been a key driver in the growth of Collas Crill's fiduciary and private client team as it has expanded across the Channel Islands, Cayman and Asia. He has also expanded the firm's image rights practice, a key asset to Collas Crill's private client offering.

The 50 Most Influential is designed to identify, recognise, promote and introduce the leading practitioners of the private client profession and shows the breadth and depth of talent at the forefront of the private client professions today. Those that have made it onto the list are the leaders when it comes to providing the best possible service for clients and to driving innovation in the way the needs of wealthy individuals are met.

Following an open call for nominations, a shortlist was drawn up from the nominations as well as industry knowledge. All judging was carried out by an internal PAM Insight panel of experts.

Jason said: "It is an honour to be recognised by eprivateclient and by my peers. As the fastest growing offshore law firm this accolade is a testament to our forward-thinking firm.

"I'd also like to congratulate the others included on the list. Eprivateclient is a valued and well-respected publication and this inclusion means a great deal."
