

Collas Crill associate named in Top 35 Under 35

June 2018

Collas Crill associate Gregory Haddow has been listed by eprivateclient as one of the Channel Islands' Top 35 Under 35 private client practitioners.

Gregory, who qualified as a solicitor last year following the completion of his training contract with Collas Crill, sits in the firm's trust and fiduciary team. He specialises in providing advice in relation to non-contentious trust and foundation matters.

The Channel Islands' Top 35 Under 35 initiative is designed to identify, recognise, promote and introduce the rising stars of the private client practitioner community.

Angela Calnan, the group partner who heads Collas Crill's trusts and fiduciary practice in Guernsey, said: "At just 28, Greg is one of the youngest recipients of this award. Since qualifying in September last year, Greg has been keen to get as involved as possible in our larger and more technical mandates, he attained a first class mark in his most recent STEP exam and has also been involved in developing our relationships with trustees locally and law firms in London.

"It is rare to find a lawyer with such sharp technical skills combined with the excellent people skills to match. Greg has that and I think he has a fabulous career ahead of him. We are extremely proud of Greg's achievement, it is very much well deserved."

Gregory said: "I am delighted to have been selected to receive this award and feel as though it is testament of the training that we receive at Collas Crill and is a reflection on the strength and capability of our trust and fiduciary practice."

Collas Crill's private client team spans both contentious and non-contentious matters and provides high-net-worth individuals, private banks and trust companies with specialist advice on a range of issues including wealth structuring, regulatory matters, real estate, private family funds and conflict resolution.
