

Collas Crill shortlisted in IFC Awards

August 2017

Collas Crill has been shortlisted for Jersey Law Firm of the Year and Guernsey Law Firm of the Year at the 2018 Citywealth International Financial Centre (IFC) awards.

Now in their seventh year, the IFC awards were established to highlight the excellence of advisers and managers in the private wealth sector in the major financial centres.

The awards are judged by an international panel of practitioners from all sectors, working with advisors in all the relevant jurisdictions. Additionally, members of the public can also contribute through an online vote which will carry the weight of one additional judge.

Group Managing Partner of Collas Crill, Jason Romer, said: "I am delighted that our Channel Island private client teams have been shortlisted as part of the IFC awards. The continued endorsement from Citywealth is a testament to the experience, dedication and quality of service of the teams.

"For expertise, responsiveness and market knowledge, these are the teams to worth with."

The awards will be presented on 25 January 2018. You can vote for Collas Crill here.
