

Collas Crill Cayman expands commercial team

March 2017

Collas Crill has appointed associate Aoife Madden to its growing commercial team in the Cayman Islands.

Aoife has experience in all areas of commercial and company law, in particular on matters related to investment funds, banking and corporate finance, security and commercial transactions.

She regularly advises on all aspects of investment fund structuring, both hedge and private equity funds, including the launch, all regulatory elements, ongoing operations, restructuring and winding down.

Prior to joining Collas Crill, Aoife practised with another leading offshore firm in the Cayman Islands as well as with McCann FitzGerald in Dublin.

Aoife is qualified to practise law in the Cayman islands, England & Wales and the Republic of Ireland. She is a member of the Cayman Islands Law Society, the Law Society of Ireland and 100 Women in Hedge Funds.

Cayman managing partner and head of the commercial practice area, Alan de Saram, said: "We are very pleased to welcome Aoife. Her experience with offshore corporate structures makes her a great addition to our team as we continue to expand our practice."

This follows the Cayman commercial team being ranked in Chambers & Partners Global Guide for 2017 alongside the dispute resolution team.
