

Collas Crill advises Challenger Acquisitions Limited on London Stock Exchange listing

February 2015

Collas Crill recently acted as Guernsey legal adviser to Challenger Acquisitions Limited on its successful capital raising and listing on the London Stock Exchange's Main Market. Challenger is a Guernsey company formed to undertake acquisitions of companies or businesses in the entertainment and leisure sectors.

Sean Cheong, partner in Collas Crill Guernsey commented, "We are delighted to be working with the principals of Challenger and their advisers in this new venture. We look forward to supporting Challenger in the acquisition phase of its growth."

Guernsey continues to lead on the number of companies listed on the London Stock Exchange, followed by Jersey.
