

Promotion in Cayman office

September 2019

Collas Crill has promoted Senior Associate Jennifer Colegate to Of Counsel in their Cayman office.

Jennifer joined the firm's Dispute Resolution team in July 2017, specialising in cross-border insolvency and restructuring.

She advises office holders and stakeholders alike, in a variety of distressed and insolvent scenarios.

Jennifer has broad experience in advising on the restructurings of various structured products that were adversely affected by the financial and liquidity crises, across a number of jurisdictions.

In addition to her work in private practice, Jennifer has extensive experience of working with banking clients, following secondments in both Hong Kong and London.

Stephen Leontsinis, Cayman Partner said: 'Jennifer has more than proven her capabilities since joining Collas Crill and I'm sure she will continue to excel in her role as Of Counsel.'

'It has been an exciting year for the Cayman office, with a number of new appointments; Jennifer's promotion further cements the firm's ambitious growth strategy.'

Jennifer added: 'I'm truly thrilled to have been promoted to the role of Of Counsel and am very excited for the next chapter of my career with Collas Crill.'

Jennifer's new role is effective as of 18 September 2019.
