COLLAS CRILL

Partner named Woman of the Year – Professional Services

MARCH 2020

Collas Crill Partner Kellyann Ozouf was crowned gold winner of the Woman of the Year - Professional Services Award at the Citywealth Powerwomen Awards 2020 which took place in London on Wednesday, 4 March.

The awards were aimed at senior women demonstrating leadership or having attained a substantial leadership position.

She was also shortlisted for: Inspirational Woman of the Year and Woman of the Year - Business Growth (Mid-size).

Kellyann said: 'It's a real honour to have been recognised as Woman of the Year - Professional Services when so many other outstanding lawyers and professionals were also shortlisted. I hope that I can use my win to influence female leaders of tomorrow, and am grateful to my clients, contacts and Citywealth for their continued support.'

Already a renowned name within the Citywealth Awards, Kellyann was previously named as Partner of the Year in the 2019 and 2016 Citywealth Future Leaders Awards, Inspirational Individual of the Year in the 2017 Citywealth Future Leaders Awards. She is included in the latest edition of the Citywealth Leaders List.
