

Wills and estates update amid COVID-19

---

March 2020

With the introduction of the lockdown in both Guernsey and Jersey, amid the ongoing coronavirus pandemic, the Collas Crill wills and estates team across the Channel Islands, would like to reassure clients, old and new, that we are here and happy to help you with any concerns that you may have.

At what is undoubtedly a difficult and uncertain time, matters relating to our future will be at the forefront of many minds. We continue to provide assistance and advice on all matters, including wills, probate, estate administration, guardianships and powers of attorney.

In order to help our clients in the best way that we can, our standard practices have been amended to ensure that our team is fully accessible, working from home; using telephone calls, emails, and video conferencing to ensure that we continue to offer the highest standard of service to you.

In appropriate and vital circumstances, we will work with you to meet your needs, taking all possible and necessary precautions to ensure the health and wellbeing of our team and you, our clients.

Should you need any assistance or information at this difficult time please do feel free to contact our Jersey team here or Guernsey team here. We are here to help.
