COLLAS CRILL

2020/21 STEP Private Client Awards

AUGUST 2020

Collas Crill has been named finalist in two categories at the 15th Annual STEP Private Client Awards.

The offshore law firm has been shortlisted for Private Client Legal Team of the Year (midsize firm) and Guernsey Associate, Emma Taylor, has been shortlisted for Young Practitioner of the Year.

The Awards are seen as the hallmark of quality within the private client industry, highlighting excellence and innovation among private client professionals worldwide.

Group Managing Partner, Jason Romer, said: "I am delighted that we have been shortlisted in two groups this year. Our private client teams across the group are doing some fantastic work and this recognition by STEP and our peers is a testament to that. Congratulations to all of those involved here at Collas Crill."

The winners will be announced at the first-ever STEP Virtual Awards Ceremony taking place on 9 December 2020.
