

Collas Crill advises Copper Street Capital on investment into Thistle Initiatives Group

October 2022

Collas Crill advised Copper Street Capital LLP, the private equity investor focused on the European financial services sector, on its investment into Thistle Initiatives Group.

The team, led by Group Partner Sam Sturrock and Associate Khetha Shezi, provided legal advice on all the Jersey aspects of the transaction. This included advising in respect of the Jersey companies involved in the structure and arrangements in place between the different stakeholders.

Sam said: 'We were delighted to work on this project with Copper Street Capital and a team of top advisors on yet another investment into European financial services. Our corporate team has great experience in private and cross-border mergers and acquisitions across a variety of asset classes. Congratulations to all involved.'

Copper Street Capital was supported on the transaction by Proskauer Rose, DLA Piper, PwC, RSM and Oliver Wyman.
