

Collas Crill awarded 'Best Legal Team' at the 2022 WealthBriefing Channel Islands Awards

December 2022

Collas Crill has been handed the honour of 'Best Legal Team' at the inaugural WealthBriefing Channel Islands Awards.

The awards, part of a global programme run by WealthBriefing, have been designed to recognise 'outstanding organisations' by specialism and geography who have 'demonstrated innovation and excellence during the last year'.

Kellyann Ozouf, Collas Crill Partner and head of its International Private Client and Trusts team in Jersey, said: 'It is a privilege to have been recognised as 'Best Legal Team' in the inaugural WealthBriefing Channel Islands Awards. The award reflects our relentless focus on delivering the very best service, advice and solutions for our clients. A very heartfelt thanks and a huge congratulations to our teams in Jersey and Guernsey.'

CEO of ClearView Financial Media, publisher of WealthBriefing, Stephen Harris said: 'These awards recognise the very best operators in Channel Islands wealth management, with 'independence', 'integrity' and 'genuine insight' the watchwords of the judging process.'
