

GRR100 2022 highlights Collas Crill's strength in insolvency

January 2023

Collas Crill has been ranked in the upper echelons of the 2022 Global Restructuring Review (GRR) 100, an annual guide to the world's leading law firms for cross-border restructuring and insolvency matters.

For the second year running Collas Crill has been ranked in the top 30 firms - industry recognition of its growth, strength and depth in the field of insolvency.

Firms listed in the guide have been vetted for their 'expertise and demonstrable experience in cross-border matters' and deemed 'the most competent and vouched-for international firms', offering 'a safe pair of hands in which to leave a multinational business in distress'.

The GRR write-up highlights Collas Crill's 'enviable list of case milestones' since its inception in 2011 and includes a selection of the high-profile cases the firm has worked on across its jurisdictions in the guide's research period.

This ranking reinforces the firm's well-established reputation in insolvency following its top-tier listings in the latest Legal 500 (see here and here) and Chambers (see here and here) directories.

Group Managing Partner Jason Romer said: 'Inclusion in the GRR's top 30 global law firms is a clear demonstration of the strong standing and experience of our insolvency and restructuring teams in the BVI, Cayman, Guernsey and Jersey.'

'We continue to be involved in some of the most complex, multi-jurisdictional insolvency and restructuring matters, a reflection of the strength and depth of our insolvency expertise across the firm. A key strategy at Collas Crill is building strengths on strengths and the development and growth of our insolvency practice is a key component of this.'
