COLLAS CRILL

Collas Crill in conversation: Gender diversity in the legal industry

MARCH 2023

Tomorrow, 8 March, is International Women's Day and the theme for 2023 is - worldwide, everyone everywhere can step forward to #EmbraceEquity.

At Collas Crill we continually strive to make our firm a place where brilliant people are proud to work. Key to this is creating a culture where everyone feels that they belong, feels valued and can work to their full potential, regardless of their background, identity, gender and circumstances.

As we head into IWD and celebrate the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women across the globe, here is a video of Associate Aliki Skelton-Lettsome interviewing BVI Managing Partner Ellie Crespi on her career to date, the challenges she has experienced first-hand or witnessed as a woman in law, how things have changed over the last 20 years and what still needs to be done.

This note is a summary of the subject and is provided for information only. It does not purport to give specific legal advice, and before acting, further advice should always be sought. Whilst every care has been taken in producing this note neither the author nor Collas Crill shall be liable for any errors, misprint or misinterpretation of any of the matters set out in it. All copyright in this material belongs to Collas Crill.

COLLAS CRILL

For more information please contact:

Ellie Crespi

BVI Managing Partner | BVI

t: +1 284 852 6335 | e: ellie.crespi@collascrill.com

This note is a summary of the subject and is provided for information only. It does not purport to give specific legal advice, and before acting, further advice should always be sought. Whilst every care has been taken in producing this note neither the author nor Collas Crill shall be liable for any errors, misprint or misinterpretation of any of the matters set out in it. All copyright in this material belongs to Collas Crill.