Collas Crill shortlisted in two categories at the STEP Private Client Awards 2023

JUNE 2023

Collas Crill has been shortlisted for the Contentious Trusts and Estates Team of the year (mid-size) and the Private Client Legal Team of the Year (mid-size) as the STEP Private Client Awards 2023.

The STEP Private Client Awards are seen as the hallmark of quality within the private client industry, highlighting excellence and innovation among private client professionals worldwide.

28 fee earners work in the Contentious Trusts and Estate team across Guernsey and Jersey, with 135 fee earners across the firm overall.

In its entry Collas Crill had to provide details of its most notable cases, explaining the significance and key legal issues involved, as well as highlight the team's range of skills, how they secure new client relationships in this specialist field and how the firm differentiates itself from competitors.

Group Managing Partner Jason Romer said:

'Our private client teams have and continue to work on a number of the most significant and largest cases across our jurisdictions. To be recognised by STEP as finalists in two categories this year is a testament to that, to the depth and strength of our teams, and the client experience we are able to offer. Congratulations to all of those involved here at Collas Crill on their success.'

All STEP award entries undergo a rigorous judging process and judges are supported by an independent panel of experts comprising of internationally renowned practitioners in the wealth management arena. The winners will be announced at the awards ceremony on 21 September 2023 at the London Hilton on Park Lane.
