NOVEMBER 2021

Collas Crill has been ranked in this year's Global Restructuring Review (GRR) 100, an annual guide to the world's leading law firms for cross-border restructuring and insolvency matters.

The write-up also highlights Collas Crill's rapid growth since its inception in 2011 and includes a selection of the high-profile cases the firm has worked on across its jurisdictions, with particular mention of the firm's growing teams in Cayman and BVI.

The guide notes the significance the appointment of Stephen Leontsinis, head of Collas Crill's dispute resolution team in Cayman, has had on the insolvency and restructuring practice.

The hires of partners Matthew Dors, Jennifer Colegate and Rocco Cecere were noted to have further bolstered the restructuring and insolvency team in Cayman. David Harby's appointment as partner and head of its dispute resolution team in the BVI was also highlighted.

The guide cites Collas Crill's 'enviable list of case milestones' and lists a number of cases the firm has been involved in within the last year. This includes acting for the joint liquidators in the winding down of Cayman fund PPVA, acting as Cayman counsel for sovereign wealth fund GIC Private Ltd (GIC) and the multi-jurisdictional case Jersey partner Simon Hurry led on behalf of receivers, Grant Thornton, regarding a trust asset, valued at €52 million, to recover the amounts due under it.
