

THE END OF THE BLAME GAME IN DIVORCE?

FEBRUARY 2021

Long-awaited changes to divorce legislation are likely to come into effect in Guernsey and England and Wales later this year, allowing divorce on a no-fault basis.

In an article published in STEP Journal + (January 2021), Elizabeth Couch, Partner at Collas Crill, and Charles Hale, QC at 4 Paper Buildings, explore how these welcome changes will facilitate a more consensual approach to divorce, enabling those unhappily married to separate without apportioning blame.

Click here to read the full article.

WE ARE OFFSHORE LAW

BVI | Cayman | Guernsey | Jersey | London

FOR MORE INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT:

ELIZABETH COUCH

Partner* // Guernsey

t:+44 (0) 1481 734221 // e:elizabeth.couch@collascrill.com

WE ARE OFFSHORE LAW

BVI | Cayman | Guernsey | Jersey | London

